

Code of Conduct for Players & Young People

Taunton Tigers Basketball is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members. The Club believes that it is important that all members, coaches, officials, administrators and parents associated with the Club show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open and honest and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the Club with an adult member of the club.

As a member of Taunton Tigers Basketball you are expected to abide by the following Code of Conduct for Players & Young People:

- Members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions
- Members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants – whether coaches, opponents, volunteers, spectators or organisers, regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion
- Members should be punctual and keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their Coach or Team Manager if they are going to be late or absent
- Members must wear suitable kit for training and the Club team uniform at all matches, as agreed with the Coach/Team Manager
- Members must pay fees promptly (within a month of invoice)
- Members are not allowed to smoke whilst representing the Club
- Young persons are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind whilst representing the Club
- Members should play to win and take pride in striving to achieve their potential.
- Members should respect their opposition both on and off the court

Revised December 2010

- Members should seek to develop their all-round skills and when possible support others to do the same.
- Members should abide by any Health & Safety Rules made by the Club.
- Members should share any complaints or concerns that they may have about any aspect of their development with an adult member of the Club.
- Members should show respect to each other as well as all other members of the Club.
- Members should report any concerns they have about their well-being to the Club Welfare Officers (Gary or Julie Carter).
- Members should seek to keep themselves physically fit outside of training and competitions.
- Members should ensure they make coaches aware of any injuries they have throughout the season.
- Members should respect the decisions made by coaches during training and competitions.
- All players should take responsibility to set themselves personal goals and work positively towards achieving the targets set by the coach.

Failure to abide by the code of conduct for players & young people will result in the incident being reported to the Tigers Committee who will decide the appropriate action to be taken.
